Risk/reward profile

Specific risks

The Granate Money Market Fund is a domestic money market fund which seeks to provide investors with a high level of income, whilst preserving capital, maintaining liquidity and mitigating the risks that are specific to money market funds; namely interest rate risk, liquidity risk and credit risk. Typically the interest rate risk is influenced by the interest rate expectations and is controlled by deciding on the aggregate term of the fund. A minimum credit quality requirement for any asset held in the fund is imposed and there are typically higher exposures to the issuers that are subject to additional oversight. Proprietary credit research is a very important of the investment process. Liquidity profiles of the underlying investment are considered so as to ensure that the fund can meet its daily obligations. While capital losses are unlikely, they can occur if, for example, one of the issuers of an instrument held by the portfolio defaults. In this event, losses will be borne by the portfolio and its investors.

The effective yield is calculated using an annualised seven day rolling average of the daily income of the portfolio. In the instance of excessive withdrawals from the portfolio, the portfolio may be placed under liquidity pressures and a process of ring-fencing of withdrawal instructions and managed pay-outs over time may be followed.
